PHOTO & VIDEO POLICY: Photography and video recordings with small, non-intrusive hand-held devices are permitted in most permanent exhibit galleries, and outside for all COSI programming for personal use only, unless otherwise noted. The use of equipment deemed intrusive to COSI exhibit or guest experience is not permitted. All photos and videos should be intended for private use. Any photography or video that contains COSI exhibits, facilities, staff, or volunteers cannot be used for commercial, advertising, or promotional purposes without written permission from COSI. COSI guests acknowledge that they may be included in photography or video taken at the time of their visit by COSI team members or a member of an approved third-party. These images and/or videos may be broadcast and distributed without limitation and guests will not receive compensation for inclusion of their likeness. Accommodations are available when requested for those who wish their image not be used. COSI guests with questions or concerns are encouraged to speak with a team member of COSI's communication department.
